20 Before the Court is J.W.'s motion to quash a third party subpoena requesting the release of 21 his name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number from his Internet service provider,
22 Comcast Cable Communications. The Court DENIES J.W.'s Motion to Quash because J.W.
23 states no basis to support his request and Plaintiff's need to discover the information outweighs
24 any privacy concerns J.W. might have.
25

26 The Court finds J.W.'s Motion is premature for the reasons advanced by Plaintiff, and
27 hereby DENIES the motion.
28

1 Plaintiff has stipulated to a limited Protective Order. The GRANTS a protective order to
2 the limited extent that any information regarding J.W. released to Plaintiff by Comcast Cable
3 Communications shall be treated as confidential for a limited duration. Specifically, Plaintiff shall
4 not publicly disclose that information until J.W. has the opportunity to file a motion with this
5 Court to be allowed to proceed in this litigation anonymously and the Court rules on that motion.
6 If J.W. fails to file a motion for leave to proceed anonymously within 30 days after Comcast
7 discloses his information to Plaintiff's counsel, this limited protective order will expire.
